

Will Rueter & The Alcuin Society Invite you to PLAY WITH TYPE!

Create a broadside to be displayed at an evening celebrating the work of

WILL RUETER & THE ALIQUANDO PRESS

SINCE 1962 Will has published over 100 books, all printed (& most of them also bound) by him at his private press in Ontario. He has also printed dozens of broadsides, reflecting his passion for playing with type, color, and paper.

IN RECOGNITION of his long contribution to the book arts in Canada, the Alcuin Society will be awarding Will Rueter the

on the evening of

THURSDAY 21 MARCH, 2013.

THE EVENT will be held at the downtown campus of Simon Fraser University. It will be a lively discussion with Will, led by Heavenly Monkey publisher Rollin Milroy, about his adventures over five decades, accompanied by many illustrations and samples of his work.

TO HELP CELEBRATE the event, professional and amateur designers, commercial and private presses – everyone and anyone from across the country is invited to create a broadside. There is no theme other than, have fun playing with type!

Letterpress is encouraged, but any method of printing available to you will be welcomed. All broadsides contributed will be displayed on the evening of Will's award and talk.

To participate, simply send one copy of your broadside to the address below by March 18, 2013. All broadsides received will become the property of the Alcuin Society, and be added to its collection of materials held at the University of British Columbia. Broadside should be mailed to:
